About David S. Galeski

David Galeski has an unwavering dedication to his legal practice and assisting clients in personal injury matters, encompassing areas such as automobile accidents, medical malpractice, and premises liability cases. His prior roles as a trial attorney for a prominent national insurance company and local law firm has equipped him with an in-depth understanding of the evaluation and defense of personal injury cases. A proud native of Richmond, David is a distinguished graduate of the William & Mary Law School, where he not only excelled academically but also served on Law Review. In addition to his impressive academic achievements, he holds active memberships with the Virginia State Bar and the Richmond Bar Association.
